

The FCC should not preempt or lessen any Indiana Telephone Privacy Law. We had experienced 7 or 8 unsolicited calls per day and most at night, now we receive one a month. Our home should be private and not exposed to unwanted telemarketing calls. Leave this issue to the states. Less Federal Government involvement is better!